

Deaths, Funerals

Homer F. Crocker

GREENFIELD — Homer F. Crocker, 90, 121 1/2 Jefferson St., died at 1:45 a.m. Wednesday in Greenfield Manor.

He was born in Chillicothe, the son of Cahoun and Dorrimus Cotton Crocker.

His wife, Nancy Banks Crocker, died in 1936. He is survived by several nieces and nephews. He was a member of the A.M.E. Church in Chillicothe.

Services will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Murray Funeral Home, with the Rev. Earl S. Wagner officiating. Burial will be in Grandview Cemetery, Chillicothe.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 4 p.m. Friday.

MRS. FRANK SHAW — Services for Mrs. Lucy M. Shaw, 82, wife of Frank Shaw, 826 S. North St., were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Washington Avenue House of Prayer with the Rev. Glenn Williams officiating. Mrs. Shaw died Sunday.

Two hymns were sung by Mrs. Virginia Blair, Mrs. Louise Merritt and Mrs. Lou Leath, accompanied by Mrs. Gladys Short at the piano. Pallbearers for the burial in Washington Cemetery under the direction of the Gersner-Kinzer Funeral Home were Harry Jr., Larry, Bill, Richard and Roger Shaw and Jerry Merritt.

Ronald Knisley and Charles Edwards, Sgts. Richard Sexton and Eugene Coy and eight cadets, Tim Runnels, Steve Walters, Roger Allen, Paul Woods Jr., Ricky Bryan, Jerry Cornutte, Kenneth Underwood and Steve Coy.

The bodies of Gary Callahan, 22, the pilot, and Gary Moore, his passenger, were found in the plane. Both were Dayton residents. The Aero-Commander plane, owned by the Dayton Steel Foundry Co., was returning to Dayton from Portsmouth when it crashed. Cause of the crash has not been determined.

THE LAST, and what promises to be the best, of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra's Pops Concerts under the stars is scheduled for 8 p.m. tonight at Gardner Park.

Show tunes from "Hair," "The King and I," and "West Side Story" will be performed at the concert as will songs from the popular operas "Carmen" and "Porgy and Bess."

The Washington C. H. Area Chamber of Commerce, in an effort to determine public interest in activities of this nature, will circulate a questionnaire before the performance.

Persons attending the concert are asked to fill in the blanks concerning types of entertainment preferred and activities desired, and return the questionnaires following the performance.

As at the earlier concerts, the public is invited to bring picnic lunches or to enjoy the food prepared by women of the Staunton United Methodist Church. Sandwiches and soft drinks will be available behind the grandstand.

In keeping with the informal atmosphere of the concerts, the audience may bring cushions and blankets to sit on in the grass around the performers, or may use the seats in the grandstand area.

In case of rain, the performance will be held at the Miami Trace High School auditorium.

Bear Market

The 1934 Federal Securities Act, which provides for forfeiture of profits realized on the "short swing," that is, the purchase and sale of securities by company insiders in a period of less than six months.

Under this section the insider who makes a profit on "in-and-out" transactions in his company's securities is assumed to be using corporate information that hasn't been disclosed to the public and the profit, therefore, belongs to the corporation. A "sale" might simply be the exchange of shares in a corporate merger.

New stockholder suits also are being generated by a 1965 addition to the Supreme Court's federal rules of civil procedure which permits class actions, including those bringing suit under the securities law. In a class action, one person can sue on behalf of the whole group in the same category.

The laws, however, aren't always an investor's answer to a downturn in the market.

Kaufman said one man called him Wednesday to report that he was worth $500,000 in stocks last year and now was worth nothing. He wanted to file suit, but his lawyer concluded that the broker had done nothing illegal—he had merely given the investor half a million dollars worth of bad advice.

Area Deaths

SOUTH CHARLESTON — Services for Sineet Mullins, 68, who died Wednesday morning in his home, will be held at 2 p.m. Friday in the Ingling Funeral Home. He is survived by a brother and a sister, both of South Charleston.

LONDON — Services for Mrs. Nora B. Thomas, 87, of Rt. 3, who died Tuesday night in Madison County Hospital, will be held Friday at 10 a.m. in the Rader Funeral home with burial in Hill Cemetery at Thurman. She is survived by three grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Storm Rips Ontario; 6 Killed

SUDBURY, Ont. (AP) — The nearby town of Jively was demolished and six persons were killed today by a storm that hit this area with winds up to 90 miles an hour, police reported.

The torrential rains and winds lasted a half hour.

A spokesman for the Ontario Provincial Police said the community of 3,000 was "flattened right out."

He said police were searching for injured and dead and all policemen in the area have been called to duty.

The storm also hit Sudbury. Police said the three hospitals in Sudbury were "jammed with injured" and Mayor Joe Fabro appealed by radio for volunteers to assist city maintenance crews in clearing debris.

Police said electrical wires were down in the area and several small fires were reported. Several boxcars were blown off tracks.

Police in Copper Cliff, just west of Sudbury, said power was out in the area. A spokesman said at least one person was killed when a tractor overturned. Streets in Copper Cliff were under 10 inches of water.

"You could go in with a boat," a police spokesman said. "I've never seen anything like it."

1943 Bomber Wreckage Found

PORT MORESBY, New Guinea (AP) — A Lutheran missionary has found the wreckage of a World War II American bomber with four skeletons in it on Mt. Schrader about 120 miles west of Madang, Australian officials said today.

The Rev. Davis Schendall discovered the wreckage while traveling on foot through the rugged mountain area near the north coast of the New Guinea trust territory. He found identification tags among the skeletons, and Australian officials are now assembling information on the plane and its occupants to forward to Washington.

The plane is believed to have crashed in 1943, officials said.

Accused Rapist Escapes Jail

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio (AP) — An accused rapist who escaped from the Guernsey County Jail Wednesday night by holding a deputy at gunpoint was still being hunted today by law enforcement officers in this area.

Deputy Clarence Eckelberry said William Secrest, 25, of Powhatan, pointed a shotgun at him as he went into the rear of the jail where a plumber had made a hole in the wall to fix leaking pipes. He said Secrest obtained the shotgun from a confiscated weapons room of the jail. Secrest fled through the hole, the deputy said.

Secrest was being held on charges of rape and assault here and also is wanted for rape in Belmont County.

Cincy Newspaper Sued For Libel

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Post & Times Star was named defendant in a $3.750 million libel suit filed Wednesday in Hamilton County Common Pleas Court in connection with a series of articles about a bar association investigation of the Hamilton County Court of Domestic Relations.

The suit was filed on behalf of James J. Mathews, president of the Harmony Loan Corp., and the company. The suit cited the newspaper's Tuesday story which mentioned Mathews as being an alleged contact in charges of misconduct in handling of domestic court cases.

O-Ville Sets Up Income Tax Rules

CIRCLEVILLE — Circleville City Council has approved a resolution establishing rules and regulations for the newly elected one-half per cent income tax. The resolution was companion legislation to the income tax ordinance which had to be re-enacted when the courts ruled the original ordinance invalid.

Heavy Rain Splatters Areas Of U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Heavy rain splattered into a large part of the nation from the central Plains to the middle Atlantic states today.

Nearly 2 inches soaked Hill City, Kan., during the night. Drenchings of an inch or more were common in parts of Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Thunderstorms rumbled through the night in much of the rainy region. The storms were triggered in midcontinent areas by an advancing cold front that dropped temperatures into the middle 40s in sections of the northern Plains.

Violent winds accompanied the storms in Missouri and upstate New York late Wednesday. Funnel clouds were sighted in Florida, Illinois and Kentucky.

Two persons were injured and some 30 small boats sank as high winds whipped Table Rock Lake near Branson, in southwestern Missouri. Numerous other persons were treated for minor injuries when the wind picked up a 180-by-40-foot dock and flipped it over.

A house and several barns were damaged heavily by what was termed a possible tornado at Eden, N.Y., 30 miles southwest of Buffalo.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 45 at Aberdeen, S.D., to 89 at Thermal, Calif.

Mary Jo's Mom Raps Ted's Friends

NEW YORK (AP) — The mother of Mary Jo Kopechne has questioned the behavior of two friends of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy after the accident that took her daughter's life last summer.

Writing in the current issue of McCall's Magazine, Mrs. Kopechne also said she believed Kennedy's story that he was driving Mary Jo to the ferry on Chappaquiddick Island when he took a wrong turn and his car plunged off a wooden bridge. Miss Kopechne drowned. Kennedy escaped serious injury but did not report the accident to authorities for several hours.

Mrs. Kopechne was highly critical of the inquest into the accident. Referring to Judge James A. Boyle's statement that he believed Kennedy had lied about his destination, she wrote:

"This conclusion, by a man who didn't know Mary Jo, leaves a bad taste in our mouths and we absolutely reject it and any implications that flow from it."

The behavior of Kennedy's two friends, Joseph Gargan and Paul Markham, is inexplicable and was not explained at the inquest, Mrs. Kopechne said. She asked why they did not call authorities when Kennedy, having escaped from the submerged car, summoned them to help him try to rescue Mary Jo.

Markham, reached for comment in Boston, said: "I gave what I thought was all the facts I am aware of under oath at the inquest, which is now a matter of public information. I don't want to comment further on it."

Desert Pollution

site 65 miles northwest of Las Vegas.

The AEC's environmental statement notes that radiation levels over most of the facility remain quite low, about double normal background levels.

The statement said there are 49 areas where the radiation level is high. But an AEC spokesman said the number of these RADEX areas can vary, depending on the type of tests being conducted and the life of the radioactive material involved.

Radioactive elements have life spans that range from minutes to years, with plutonium having one of the longer life spans.

Since the Nuclear Test Ban Treaty was signed in 1962, all 210 announced explosions at Nevada have been underground and designed to be fully contained.

According to the environmental statement, about one in 12 has leaked radioactivity detectable beyond the boundaries of the test site.

But in no case, the AEC said, have dangerous levels of radioactivity gone beyond the site boundaries.

The plutonium scattered over 250 square miles within the Nevada facility was left from tests conducted in 1958 to make certain that the crash of a U. S. bomber would not trigger a nuclear explosion.

Nuclear bombs carried on Air Force planes are unarmed. Unless the electronic steps are taken to arm a weapon, its high explosive charge will simply destroy the bomb—without triggering a nuclear explosion. This is what happened in the 1958 tests, scattering the plutonium on the desert.

WEATHER SUMMARY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) —

Official weather bureau summary for Ohio:

It was warm and muggy in Ohio Wednesday. Toledo was the cool spot with a high of 80. Cleveland was the warmest with 91.

Rainfall varied widely. Over an inch was recorded at the Lunken airport in Cincinnati. Cleveland had .31-inch. Findlay and Zanesville reported none and Columbus a trace.

Relief from humid conditions is on the way. A cool front is expected to move into northern Ohio early this afternoon and work south. Temperatures are forecast in the 80s.

There is a chance of thunderstorms near the front as it passes. They are most likely in the southern portions of the state. Clearing skies and drier air will allow temperatures to drop near 60 in northern Ohio tonight, while lows near the Ohio River will be around 70.

Sunny skies are forecast Friday. Highs Friday are forecast in the 70s north and 80s south with much lower humidity.

Trespassing Charge Filed

A local employee of the Dayton Power and Light Co. was charged with trespassing after he reportedly went onto the property of a city resident to cut off electrical service Wednesday.

The charges were filed against Lee Shonkwiler, 50, of 407 Western Ave., by William Stolzenburg, 804 Maple St.

Shonkwiler allegedly entered Stolzenburg's property twice. The first time he reportedly requested payment of an allegedly overdue electric bill. Stolzenburg reportedly asked Shonkwiler to leave, and he did.

A short time later he returned, this time accompanied by a policeman, and disconnected at the meter the electrical service to the residence.

Stolzenburg reportedly told Shonkwiler to leave his property both times.

Syrian Government Smashes Coup Plan

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Syria's Baath Socialist government has smashed a plot by the rival Baathist faction in Iraq to overthrow it, a Beirut newspaper which speaks for the Syrian Baathists reported today.

Arab diplomats confirmed the report in the newspaper Al-Ray-an.

The report said the coup was to have been staged "with active support from Iraqi troops stationed in Jordan and Syria." It said the Iraqi Baathists allotted $33 million to the plot, and the Syrian regime seized some of it.

Want To Buy A Ship?

JAKARTA (AP) — The Indonesian government wants to sell half its navy for scrap because it hasn't got the money to maintain the ships. A navy spokesman said 100 aging ships the Soviet Union sold the late President Sukarno are on the market, including a 20,000-ton cruiser, destroyers, minesweepers and submarines. The Russians wouldn't provide any spare parts for the ships because Indonesia still owes it $800 million, the spokesman added.

Stock List Levels Off

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market leveled off as the rally of the two previous sessions apparently ran out of steam.

At noon the Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was off 0.82 at 723.17. Advancing issues on the New York Stock Exchange had a slight edge over decliners.

Trading was light. The market had opened on an upbeat note today. The Dow industrial average had climbed 1.02 points by the first half hour of trading and winners had held nearly a 2 to 1 advantage over losers. Shortly afterward the market turned downward.

The Associated Press 60-stock average was up .2 at 238.6. Industrials were up 2, rails off 1 and utilities up .4.

Mail-order and retail were higher while chemicals were lower. Oil issues, which had been among the week's star performers, were mixed.

Wage Fight Against Fleas In Factory

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — An employee of a Cleveland area metal fabricating plant says the plant is infested with fleas and "it's gotten so bad, you need a third hand to scratch with while you work."

Joseph Sams, a 14-year employee of Allied Metals Corp. in suburban Brooklyn, is waging a fight to rid the plant of fleas and the dozen cats which live there and are believed to be the carriers.

"It's just miserable for all of us and our wives are giving us the devil for carrying fleas home," said Sams, chief steward of Local 468, Ornamental Iron Workers.

A company spokesman said Wednesday "there is a little flea problem," but an exterminator was coming in today to take care of it.

Sams said the 12 cats are strays that live in the plant. "It started with just a couple of cats, but they reproduced and now we got more than we know what to do with," he added.

an order to fire," Canterbury said. "The answer was negative."

Upon hearing the shots, Canterbury said he immediately ran to the right flank, "grabbed two people on the shoulders and yelled 'cease fire,' as did the other officers."

The company of guardsmen, totaling 96 men and eight officers, then marched on over the hill and down to a flat area referred to as "the commons."

Canterbury said he then ordered an ammunition check and a list of names of any guardsmen who had fired their weapons.

An Ohio guardsman, he said, can fire his weapon without an officer's approval only upon two conditions. He said one of them was to return fire on a sniper and the other was in defense of his own life.

Policeman Shot Down In California

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — A patrolman writing a traffic citation was shot to death today in the third similar San Francisco area police slaying in two months.

Ronald T. Tsukamoto, 28, on the force 11 months, died two hours after an unknown assailant fired two shots, one striking the officer in the head.

Richard Berger, police spokesman, said the slaying "resembles a San Jose shooting death and a San Francisco one in that police were on traffic stops during early morning hours when the assailant came up."

Police said Tsukamoto, traveling alone in his police car, pulled aside a motorcyclist who made an illegal turn on a main thoroughfare.

While Tsukamoto wrote a traffic ticket near the cycle, Berger said, a man walked up to the policeman, pulled a revolver from a pocket and fired. Then he fled in a car nearby.

The cyclist, whose name was withheld, used the police car radio to call police, officers said.

Army Frees
Sergeant
In Massacre

FT. McPHERSON, Ga. (AP) — The Army says it has dropped charges against S. Sgt. Kenneth L. Hodges in connection with the alleged massacre at My Lai because "available evidence was insufficient" to bring him to trial.

The action, taken after the Army's equivalent of a grand jury investigation, reduced to 11 the number of men charged in connection with the incident. Five have been ordered to court-martial.

Hodges, 25, had been charged with rape and assault with intent to murder in connection with events at or near Son My in South Vietnam in March 1968. My Lai was a village in the area of Son My.

Hodges, assigned to a headquarters unit at Ft. McPherson, was the second soldier to have charges against him dropped in the case. The first was Thomas K. Willingham, 25, of Allentown, N.J.

Hodges entered the Army in June 1963 and was a member of an infantry company commanded in Vietnam by Capt. Ernest Medina, one of the 11 still charged.

In Hodges' home town of Dublin, Ga., his mother, Mrs. Pauline Hodges, said her son's current Army enlistment ends in April 1975. Hodges is not married.

Teacher Aides Start
Wilberforce Training

WILBERFORCE, Ohio (AP)—Some 100 adult teacher aides begin training this week with the teachers in whose classrooms they will be working next month.

The aides are in the third week of a $700,000, federally-funded "Career Opportunities Program" designed to prepare them for work in west Dayton schools. The program is being conducted by Central State University.

The 100 adults, ranging in age from 19 to 50, will continue work toward four-year degrees in education by attending late afternoon and evening classes at Central State.

Airport Notes

By JUDY DENNIS

I was incapacitated due to minor surgery, so I will attempt to cover the highlights of two weeks of activity all in one article.

Craig Beam, Sabina, returned from an interesting visit to Niagara Falls, making the trip in his Cessna 170. Craig also is receiving instrument instruction in his plane, and got a check ride in our Cherokee Six, enabling him to fly solo in the Cherokee when he so desires.

Warren Coil made a charter trip for us, flying to Hastings, Mich., for freight for the Armo Corp. On Aug. 11, Bill flew to Illinois to bring back an agronomy expert for Mark Hybrids. The agronomist was here to give advice relative to necessary preventive measures in connection with the damaging corn blight.

Immediately following this, the Vernon Vick Flight Service came into Fayette County with two Pawnees to spray for the blight and have been flying daily in this battle against the fungus. Anxious farmers have been visiting and calling daily to get information on the spraying process.

Bill finished the multi-engine training of Don Francis, London, and Don was flight-tested by Gene Miller, Port Columbus, subsequently receiving his twin-engine rating.

JACK FISHER, Wilmington, went on his first dual cross-country flight with Bill to Marion and then went solo a few days later. Warren Coil came in with one of our students, Tom Pritchard, on a cross-country flight from Ross County, and Bill took Charles Hawkins on a cross-country flight to Madison County and Ross County airports.

Bill gave three flight tests and issued three licenses. The new pilots are Gary Sites, Mad River Airport, Luther Lyle, Columbus, and Howard Wright one of Fayette Flying Services' students. Howard plans to start his commercial training right away under the G. I. Bill.

On Aug. 6, Bill flew to Port Columbus to pick up Mr. and Mrs. Glen Heistand, who were returning home via the airlines from a trip to California.

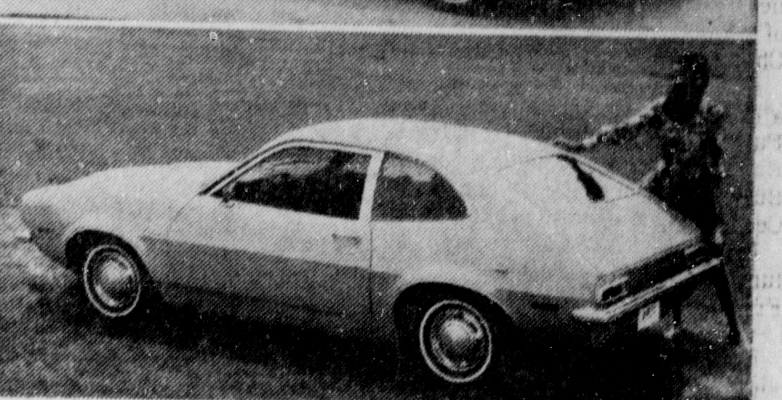

We are pleased to report that Curt Hiser, Milledgeville, passed his FAA written test, and is now ready for his flight test for his private pilot's license. Paul Stuckey won the free hour's plane rental for August.

Six new students started flying in the past two weeks. The new students are Dave Faulkner, Bob Cline, Ron Fitzwater, Frank Verderana and Kenneth Arnold. Welcome to the club, fellows.

I will cut this article short, as I'm pretty busy with the farmers trying to locate the fields they want sprayed on their various maps. As of this writing, we have a backlog of 2,000 more acres to do, and additional acreage coming in every day.

See you next week.

Charley Greer, 24 year-old safety for the Denver Broncos of the National Football League, is vice president of an employment agency.

NEW PINTO — Ford's new 1971 Pinto, a two-door sedan, combines a small car feel with a sporty-car look. The sloping windshield is accented by the low sleek lines of the hood and fenders. Ventless side windows add to the trim lines of the car. In the rear, Pinto's short deck and fastback lines stress the contemporary look of the Seventies. The Pinto is about 13 1/2 feet long, turns in a circle of only 31 feet for easy maneuverability and delivers more than 25 miles per gallon in city-suburban driving. Dealers will introduce the new Pinto Sept. 11.

Zsa Zsa Offers Jewellery Reward

NEW YORK (AP) — Zsa Zsa Gabor is offering a $30,000 reward for the return of a 38-carat ring worth $500,000 that was stolen from her in a Waldorf Towers elevator.

"I'll never wear real jewelry again," the actress told newsmen Wednesday as she described how earlier in the morning two men had taken the ring, a $100,000 pair of earrings and a $30,000 turquoise ring.

Miss Gabor, who is starring on Broadway in the comedy "Forty Carats," said none of the jewelry was insured because "rates for actresses are prohibitive."

Population Questions

The headlines have blazoned the word that the United States population may be markedly lower by the year 2000 than had previously been foreseen. Census Bureau experts have made a sharp downward revision in their projections. They now envision a population of between 266 million and 321 million 30 years hence, as compared with the 1967 projections ranging from 283 to 361 million.

A few cautionary words are in order. Anyone who supposes that the heat is off now — that we can sit back and stop worrying about the impact of too many people on the quality of American life — is guilty of blind optimism. Two important things must be borne in mind when considering the Census Bureau's revised projections, essentially based on the decline in the U. S. rate during the past decade.

The first is that such projections, though made with great skill in light of many pertinent factors, are notoriously subject to error. The second is that even if the lower projections prove accurate, the U. S. population will be anywhere from around 60 to more than 100 million greater by 2000. Providing goods and services for that many more people — everything from food and shelter to recreation space and reasonably swift justice — will greatly strain our resources and talents.

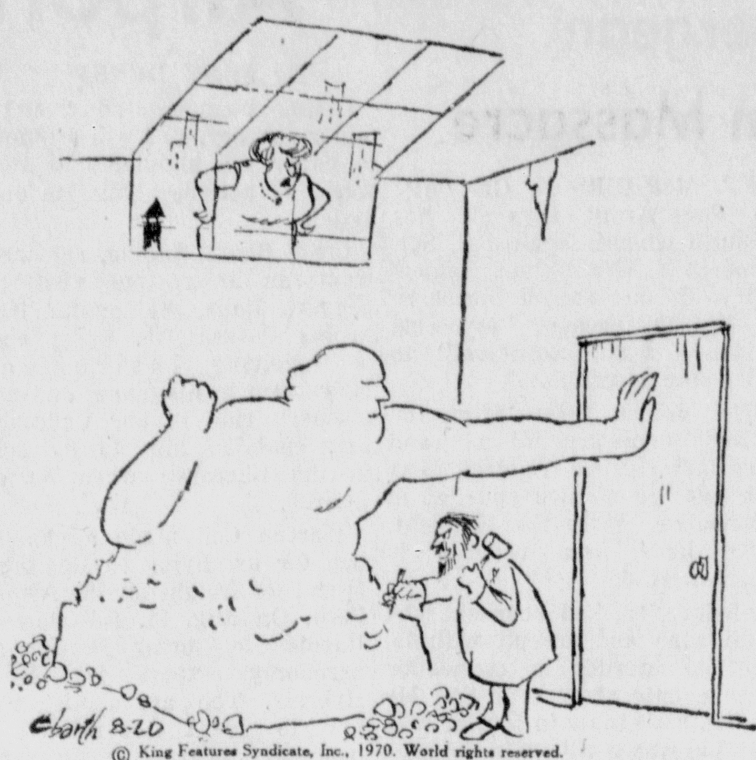

There is some reason to think that widespread use of contraceptives, and the liberalizing of abortion laws, will tend to further reduce the birth rate. It also is thought by some that growing awareness of population ecology problems may foster a trend toward small families.

These are not really very dependable premises, however. The decisions made by millions of women and their husbands may run contrary to expectations. It has happened before — as is illustrated, for example, by the unexpectedly sharp decline in the birth rate in the past few years. When it comes to dealing with the manifold problems that spring from excessive population, we had better run scared and not expect the matter to solve itself.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Not All Women Are 'Centerfold Material'

DEAR ABBY: I am 23, married with a five-year-old son. My husband brings home Playboy magazine, which is not unusual for a man, but yesterday I saw our son sitting quietly, looking at the pictures.

I didn't yank the book away from him, I just told him that the book was "new" and his father hadn't read it yet, so he had better give it to me, which he did, but reluctantly. (He said he liked the pictures.)

Abby, I am not old fashioned. When my son asks a question about sex, I try to answer him the best I can for his age with the truth. This is hard for me to do because I never heard one word from my mother about sex.

I know some women don't like for their husbands to look at Playboy, but I really don't see anything wrong with it. But how about my son?

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: I can't see anything wrong with a five-year-old boy looking at Playboy. It could, however, lead to disappointment and frustration when he reaches manhood and discovers all girls are not built like those he has seen in the centerfold.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is shy about disrobing in front of me. He covers up fast if he hears me coming. He sleeps in the altogether, but he never takes all his clothes off until the lights are out. I have never seen all of him, except for an occasional accidental glimpse. We have been married for 19 years, and believe it or not, we have a family.

After so long I wonder if there is something wrong with him for being that way? Or is there something wrong with me for wondering?

CRIOUS

DEAR CURIOS: The only thing "wrong" with your husband is his attitude about nudity. It's the way he was reared, no doubt. Since it doesn't seem to hamper your relationship, don't let it bother you. Maybe he's saving "all of himself" for your 25th wedding anniversary.

DEAR ABBY: I don't know who started that silly rule of etiquette that one should always leave something on his plate. To me, it's wasteful and sinful. If someone is served more than he can eat in a restaurant, it's understandable, but when I see people pile up a plate full of food and then leave half of it, I think it just shows their ignorance and greediness. What do you think?

HATES WASTE
DEAR HATES: Agreed. Any one who helps himself, and then

Your Status Is Deflatus

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—"Dear Poor Man's Philosopher: Recently you wrote about prestige symbols that tell a man he's a success. But anybody can tell when he's ahead."

"What a man needs to know about are the signs that tell him he's slipping. Can you point out a few?"

INSECURE

Dear INSECURE, Certainly, sir, glad to oblige. Your status is deflatus and your prestige is at the vanishing point if—

The FBI places you eleventh on its ten most-wanted list of fugitives.

Nobody likes to sit at the stool next to you in a diner because when you eat soup you make too many sound effects.

You are afraid to wear one of the new four-inch wide neckties to work for fear the boss might think you are becoming senile.

Whenever you try to tell your psychiatrist why you hated your father and mother as a child, he leaves half of it on the plate, may as well tell his hostess that her food wasn't nearly as good as it looked.

either stifles a yawn or doodles on a pad with his pencil.

One of your shoelaces is broken, and you tied it back together instead of buying a new pair.

As soon as you arrive at a cocktail party, a dozen people start to leave.

Your teen-age babysitter not only thinks you are a creep but a square creep—the very worst kind.

If you have a secretary, she is the worst speller—and has the poorest looking legs—of any in the office.

When you open your wallet, three generations of moths fly out.

You can't start up a game of touch football, because nobody in the neighborhood who knows you wants to touch you or be touched by you.

When you congratulate the minister on his Sunday sermon, he mistakes you for another member of the congregation.

All the members of the family except your wife call you "stupid." She prefers, even in public, to refer to you as "meat-head."

You are turned down for membership by three chapters of Alcoholics Anonymous—because you are too anonymous.

When you go fishing and start to bait the hook, the worm turns, snarls, and tries to bite your finger.

Yep, if these things are true of you, your prestige is so low you'd better drop out of the rat race. With your status, you'll be lucky if they let you enter a mouse crawl.

Mistletoe is the state flower of Oklahoma.

Year Of The Independent Candidate

THESE DAYS....

By John Chamberlain

The election patterns for the autumn are taking on a great similarity in Virginia, New York and Connecticut. In all three of these Eastern seaboard states we will see a strong independent Senatorial candidate contesting the field against the traditional Democratic and Republican nominees.

In Virginia the independent happens to be ex-Democrat Harry Byrd, a conservative who is favored by the polls to defeat liberal Democrat George Rawlings and liberal Republican Ray Garland.

In New York, the Conservative Party's Jim Buckley, who is campaigning as a "Nixon man" against liberal Republican Charles Goodell and liberal Democrat Richard Ottinger, has a chance of winning if the Left splits its vote evenly between the other candidates.

And in Connecticut, the incumbent U. S. senator, Tom Dodd, a former Democrat running this year on his own, has suddenly had a boost because of the way the Republican senatorial primary turned out.

Dodd, though a traditional liberal when it comes to welfarist measures, is setting himself up in Connecticut as the strongest pro-Nixon senatorial candidate on U. S. foreign policy. For all practical purposes he is the Jim Buckley (or the Harry Byrd) of his state.

He got a lucky break last week when U. S. Rep. Lowell Weicker defeated State Sen. John Lupton for the Republican U. S. senatorial nod.

Lupton had campaigned as a "Nixon man." Weicker, the Republican organization choice, resented Lupton's attempt to push him into an anti-Nixon corner, but it remains true that Weicker's opinions on foreign affairs have not always gone along with those of the White House.

ON SUCH THINGS as the Cooper-Church amendment and Cambodia, Weicker's position hasn't differed very markedly from the position of Connecticut's liberal Democrats.

All of this might be neither here nor there if Lupton had not made a surprisingly good showing against Weicker in the primary. Where U. S. Rep. Thomas Meskill, a conservative who happened to be the organization choice for governor of Connecticut, won by a big margin in the primary against State Minority Leader Wallace Barnes (the vote was 93,000 to 38,000), Weicker defeated Lupton by the much smaller vote of 76,000 to 50,000.

This would seem to indicate that a good many Republicans that will vote for Meskill for governor in November may be in a mood to desert to Tom Dodd on the foreign policy issue when they pull the senatorial lever.

Dodd's chances of winning aren't quite so good as Jim Buckley's in New York State, and he lacks the organizational strength that Harry Byrd, the inheritor of his father's "Byrd machine" regulars, can count on in Virginia.

But he has enough appeal to cause both Weicker, the Republican, and the Democrats to "run scared."

Speaking in percentage terms, there probably aren't so many all-out conservatives in Connecticut as there are in Virginia or New York. Nevertheless, the far from negligible right-wing vote in Connecticut, which feels strongly on the anti-Communist issue, will be tempted to vote for Dodd simply because he has been the U. S. Senate leader in opposing Russian imperialism for years.

In addition, Dodd has his strength among the "ethnics" of Connecticut who have Captive Nations backgrounds — The Poles, the Czechs, the Hungarians. And he has a solid trade union base in the "hard hat" section of Connecticut labor.

Some of this vote might have gone to John Lupton; it is virtually certain that it will weight the choice between Dodd and Weicker and the Democratic nominee before making a final decision.

DODD'S MAIN drawbacks are financial. Ironically he is at a disadvantage in trying to raise gift money, whether through testimonial dinners or appeals for donations, because of the censure voted by the U. S. Senate for his use of testimonial money in the past.

Dodd claims he has been vindicated on the gift money issue by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service, which found no tax irregularities after a long investigation of his finances. Nevertheless, the whole business remains an embarrassment when it comes to asking for money support this time.

Weicker, an attractive man with ingenious ideas, will very probably be the next U. S. senator from Connecticut. But Dodd can make it an interesting autumn in Connecticut, just as it will be an interesting autumn in New York State and in Virginia.

Guide To Good Health

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

MY SON had malaria while in the Air Force in the Far East. The doctors say he has completely recovered but there are a few things I would like to know. Can malaria come back? Why did his bouts of fever happen every day at the same time when he was sick?

Mr. G. J. R., South Carolina
Dear Mr. R.: The fact that your son has completely recovered from malaria and has been given the assurance of good health means that there is very little chance of a recurrence.

Yet, all people who have recovered from malaria are asked to be on the lookout for the possibility of a flare-up in order to begin active treatment again. Sometimes, the malaria parasite can lie dormant, but this is comparatively rare.

There are a number of types of malarial parasites that produce recurring attacks of chills and fever. The wide use of insecticides and anti-mosquito chemicals has reduced the danger of the anophelous mosquito through whose bite malaria is introduced into the human body.

Your question about the cycle by which the patients can almost tell the time has been of great interest to doctors and scientists everywhere.

The life cycle of the protozoan parasite that grows in the red blood cells of the malarial patient has a very special biological clock mechanism. With one form of parasite, a patient may be comfortable and feel bright and cheerful all morning. Almost suddenly, at about twelve noon, he may feel achy, have a sensation of coldness, and begin to shiver. This may progress for hours until he begins to perspire profusely. Then the temperature falls, leaving him in a state of total exhaustion.

This whole cycle may repeat itself in twenty-four or forty-eight hours depending on how the malarial parasites multiply in the blood stream of the infected patient.

This periodicity has been observed for many years and has been the target of scientific study during all that time. Many of the new drugs that have been developed have been aimed at killing the parasite during the time when it is most vulnerable within the blood cell.

Much is known through these scientific studies about each of the four major types of malarial parasites and how to prevent the complications of this disease which is still rampant in many areas of the world. The World Health Organization has been doing a magnificent job in the eradication of this threatening disease.

Round About The County--People, Places, And Things

Record-Herald Thursday, Aug. 20, 1970 5
Washington C. H., Ohio

By B. E. KELLEY
Farmers throughout much of Ohio have been greatly worried lest their corn crop proves a failure due to the Southern leaf blight — in the shape of fungi which has struck much of the corn, particularly in the southern Ohio counties.

After talking with Willard Kirk, thrice "Corn King of the World" and also talking with other farmers in the county, I am convinced that there still is a chance of a fairly good crop.

However much depends upon the rapidly with which the blight spreads during the next 10 days, for much of the corn still in the early milk stage crop is just about "made" and may be beyond serious damage from the fungi which has struck with such deadly force and so unexpectedly.

Those with whom I have talked are for the most part optimistic as to the outcome this year, and hope cold weather during the coming winter may prevent another more serious outbreak next year.

Already some are planning to burn their stalk fields instead of plowing the infected stalks under and possibly carry infection over into next season's crop.

At the Mark Hybrid Seed Corn plant, I saw ears of corn from blight spreads during the next Pike County, one of which was still in the early milk stage crop and had been charred by rot which had penetrated the husk within a short time and destroyed a large place on an otherwise good ear.

Some fields show more blight than others, but if the ears are not affected, the crop should be a good one.

The foggy, smoky, smoggy weather has been ideal for spread of the fungi, the spores of which are carried by the wind, and it will be recalled that a short time ago we had a strong southerly wind and rain.

There is a strong possibility that the present disaster (it is exactly that in some areas of southern Ohio) is due to upsetting the balance of nature by chemicals and pollution of air, lakes, streams and ponds, freeing the fungi that otherwise would be controlled by nature.

Recently at the state convention of Natural Food Associates, at Wittenberg College in Springfield, we heard one ecologist state that due to pollution of the environment, fungi or other blight is killing many trees, and within the next 50 to 100 years the country could be deforested by fungi or other blight, "unless man ceases his war against nature and works with nature."

Other speakers pointed to the serious consequences becoming apparent because of upsetting the balance of nature with chemicals, smoke, motor exhaust and other means.

Throughout the growing season, corn in this part of Ohio has been remarkably healthy and the growth has been rapid and maturity is now just around the corner. I am very hopeful of good results.

The Polish army drove back the Russian Bolshevik army marching upon Warsaw, and followed the fleeing Reds, forcing them to abandon Brest Litovsk, 120 miles from Warsaw, cut three divisions to pieces, took many prisoners, and reported having 40,000 more surrounded with no chance of escape.

Gov. James Cox in campaigning for the presidency, scored Sen. Warren Harding's record in the Senate, stood firmly for the peace treaty and League of Nations and criticized the small group of senators for "disgracing America" in not approving the treaty and League of Nations.

Harding, also campaigning for the presidency, praised the Senate for its stand and indicated he would continue to fight the treaty and oppose entering the League of Nations. The Staunton M. E. Church celebrated its 100th birthday, and an all-day homecoming was held.

Miss Robson, Mr. Seymour Are United In Marriage

MRS. DANNY W. SEYMOUR

Miss Elizabeth Ann Robson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Robson, Rt. 2, Frankfort, and Mr. Danny Wayne Seymour, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Seymour, of Jeffersonville, exchanged marriage vows Sunday the Pisgah-Mount Pleasant Federated Church.

The Rev. Russell Shepherd, of Bristol Village, Waverly, officiated at the double-ring ceremony at 2:30 p.m., following a prelude of wedding music by Mrs. Lane Mossbarger, vocalist, and G. H. Finch, organist.

Arrangements of white gladioli, white mums and blue shasta daisies, fern and emerald foliage enhanced the side of the chancel. Wedding tapers in gold candelholders graced the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length dress of silk organza, featuring two tones of blue, with a wide capelet collar. A wedding ring bandeau of braided blue satin held her circular shoulder-length veil of pale blue illusion. Her only jewelry was a gold watch which belonged to her paternal grandmother. She carried her Eastern Star Bible topped with a large yellow-throated white orchid encircled with French carnations and a cascade of ivy and blue and white satin streamers.

The maton of honor, Mrs. Jack Shepler, wore a semi-sheer mint green sheath and a headpiece of white floral plateau, with accessories of white. She wore a white rosebud corsage.

Mrs. Robson chose a lime green jersey sheath with white accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother wore a brown and white floral dress with matching accessories and a white rosebud corsage.

Mr. Shepler served as best man. The guests were seated

Creamer Family Holds Reunion

The 71st annual Creamer family reunion took place in the Spring Grove United Methodist Church, Mr. Jean Creamer gave the invocation preceding the bountiful basket dinner at noon.

Robert C. Creamer, president, conducted a business session when new officers were elected for the coming year. They are: President, Robert Creamer; vice president, Carl N. Creamer; secretary, Mrs. Carl N. Creamer; treasurer, Mrs. M. C. Creamer, and historian, Nelson Black. The group voted to purchase a gift for the church in memory of the late F. Scott Zimmerman, who was secretary of the Creamer reunion for several years.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin E. Creamer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Creamer and granddaughter, Catherine, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Smith and daughter, Mrs. Martha Saum and son, James, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Badgley, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Black and daughter and Rachel E. Creamer, of Columbus;

OLD HOME WEEK — Among the 529 summer graduates at Murray State University, was Mrs. Janet Newman Ratliff, formerly of Washington C. H. Her husband, Larry, is an instructor in geology at the school. Mrs. Ratliff received a bachelor of science degree in English. Before entering Murray State, she was a student at Morehead State University, serving also as a secretary to the yearbook staff on that campus. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Newman, Washington Manor Ct.

Anti-Slavery Law

PROVIDENCE (AP) — Rhode Island enacted North America's first anti-slavery law May 18, 1852.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fletcher, CCC Highway-W, have returned from South Bend, Ind., where they were houseguests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fletcher and daughter, Kristen.

Couple United In Marriage In Orlando, Fla.

Union Park Church of the Nazarene in Orlando, Fla., was the setting July 25 for the marriage of Miss Hazel Marie Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wood, of Orlando, and Mr. Paul E. Stanforth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stanforth, 807 Clinton Ave.

The Rev. M. G. Burnsed officiated at the double-ring ceremony at 6 p.m. Mrs. Rose Sisk, organist, presented a prelude of wedding selections.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride wore a long white formal gown of silk chiffon and lace. It featured long bridal point lace sleeves. She carried a cascade of white carnations.

Miss Patricia Whiddon, of Orlando, was maid of honor and David Wood, brother of the bride, was the best man.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table featured a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with white roses and topped with an archway holding wedding rings. Punch was served from a crystal punch bowl. Mrs. Charles Wood, sister-in-law of the bride, was a hostess.

The new Mrs. Stanforth was graduated in July from Mid-Florida Tech High School, in Orlando. Her husband, a 1965 graduate of Washington High School, has served in the U.S. Air Force and is now employed at Sugar Creek Packing Co. The couple is residing at 897 Clinton Ave.

Tate Witness Seeks Seclusion

By LINDA DEUTSCH
Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "I'd like to go into the wilderness with my children and get down to nature and closer to God," said Linda Kasabian, pale but smiling as she ended 18 days as the state's key witness in the Sharon Tate murder trial.

But no matter where she goes, the petite blonde said she'll always remember the murders: "It is deep within my heart what happened and I could never forget it."

Speaking softly, Mrs. Kasabian made her remarks at a news conference an hour after she left the witness stand.

Asked what she now thinks of Charles M. Manson and his three women followers on trial for the slayings, Mrs. Kasabian said: "I'd like to see them fall down on their knees and beg forgiveness."

Mrs. Kasabian, 21, once a member of Manson's hippiestyle "family," was charged with murder-conspiracy in the killings of Miss Tate, and six others but was granted immunity from prosecution for her testimony. She told how Manson ordered his followers to kill. She said she went along as lookout on two murder missions, but did not enter the house where victims were slain.

Of her future, she said, "I want to do my own thing." She said she doesn't plan to live with her husband Robert, although they'll "always be together" spiritually. She said she does not plan to live with her mother, who has been caring for her children in Milford, N.H. But she said she'll take the children—Tanya, 2, and Angel, 5 months—with her. She declined to say where she will live.

Asked if she feared reprisals from Manson's followers, she paused, then said: "I'm not going to worry about it."

In the last moments of her testimony, Mrs. Kasabian said she fled to New Mexico to see her husband after the killings in August 1969 and told him: "Charlie flipped out and had a whole bunch of people killed." But she said she did not consider telling police.

The next witness called by the prosecution was Timothy Ireland, who was a counselor at a day camp near the actress' home. He said he heard a man's screams for about 15 seconds the night of the slayings.

He said that after the screams at about 12:40 a.m. he drove around the neighborhood but saw nothing and went to sleep without calling police.

Rudolf Weber—who lived in a house at the bottom of Benedict Canyon, an area near the Tate residence—said he was awakened about 1 a.m. on the murder night by the sound of running water. He said he saw a young man and three young women washing themselves with a hose.

Mrs. Kasabian had testified that members of the murder party were spotted by a man as they stopped at a home to wash blood off their bodies and clothes. Weber said he made a note of the license number of the group's car, but did not report it to police.

Later, he said, he threw away the note but he remembered the number when police contacted him in December. It was, he said GYY-435, the plate number which the state says was on the car used on the murder missions.

Zoning Issue Continued

A request by Charles Seymour, 635 McLean St., for a zoning variance permitting him to operate a used merchandise store in the basement of his home was continued by the Zoning Board of Appeals Wednesday night. Because of lack of a quorum, the hearing will be held at a later date.

Firehouse Bids At Greenfield Above Estimate

GREENFIELD — City Council has two proposals under study for construction of a new fire department building. Both proposals are far in excess of the project cost as estimated by architects.

Plans were drawn by the firm of Fiedler, Fichter & Head of Cincinnati, which estimated cost at $69,500.

The city has $57,000 in a special building fund for the purpose and has the prerogative of drawing upon an invested reserve of more than $900,000 should one of the bids be accepted.

Low bidder was Gay & Chaffin, Inc., of Chillicothe, at $106,485. The Sever-Williams Co., Inc., of Washington, C. H. submitted a bid of $124,850.

Baldwin Piano Company Closes Cincinnati Plant

CINCINNATI (AP) — The D. H. Baldwin Co. Wednesday ordered grand piano assembly operations at its Cincinnati plant closed down and moved to plants in Arkansas.

Lucien Wulms, chairman of the board, in a prepared statement, said the change would affect 100 workers in Cincinnati. The firm, chartered in 1862, had been making pianos in Cincinnati since 1890.

Wulms blamed general economic conditions and increasing competition from Japanese manufacturers. About 75 wood working personnel would be kept, the firm said.

The firm assembles pianos at Conway, Ark., and makes organs at Fayetteville, Ark.

House Blacklisted For OSU Students

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State University students will be advised not to reside in a campus area rooming house which allegedly refused to rent a room to a Negro.

An Ohio State University housing appeals board Wednesday upheld a university decision to blacklist the house, in the first test of the university's 1969 open housing rule.

Gilligan Attacks Republican Record

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — Democratic gubernatorial nominee John J. Gilligan charged here today that the present state administration has chosen "to ignore the real needs of the people and to concentrate instead on public relations programs."

In remarks prepared for delivery to the United Steelworkers Union convention, Gilligan said the state "has done practically nothing in the fields of education, mental health, law enforcement and pollution control."

Gilligan was scheduled to fly to Youngstown later today.

Analyze Eddie Fisher Bankruptcy

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A former aide estimates that Eddie Fisher made more than $700,000 annually in his peak years. Now the belting baritone has filed a bankruptcy petition in Puerto Rico. What happened?

Longtime Fisher watchers and associates speculate: "I don't think he's kept his repertoire as up to date as Sinatra does. Or Andy Williams, who has kept developing with the times."

"The public got tired of him. He was the former Mr. Elizabeth Taylor too long."

"Eddie's always been a giver. Any time you admired anything of his he gave it to you. More people are wearing old Eddie Fisher suits than any other entertainer's."

"The pressure of debt kept him from caring about how good he can be. The bankruptcy may help him put his mind to his career again."

In the petition the 42-year-old singer listed debts of nearly $1 million against assets of $40,000.

The debt total of $916,300 includes $41,069 in U.S. taxes, $43,327 to the state of California, $58,000 to Paramount Pictures, $34,000 to Bank of America and $40,980 to a jeweler.

The shocked-haired, 5-foot-8½ "little kid with the big voice" reached a popularity and money peak in the first half of the 1950s. Eddie Cantor had discovered the Philadelphia-born Fisher singing at a Catskill resort and introduced him on a tour and on radio.

In a newspaper contest, Eddie outdistanced Frank Sinatra and Perry Como as "King of the Baritones."

For RCA-Victor he recorded 23 straight hits, including the million-plus sellers "Any Time," "I'm Walking Behind You," "Oh, Mein Papa" and "I Need You Now."

For five years he had his own television shows. He starred in two movies—"Buckle Up, Bunch of Joy," with Debbie Reynolds, when she was his wife, and "Butterfield 8" with Elizabeth Taylor, while married to her.

His third wife, actress Connie Stevens, divorced him in June 1969. They had two daughters.

Miss Reynolds and Fisher were married in 1955 and had two children. Tearfully divorcing Eddie in 1959, Debbie testified, "My husband became interested in another woman."

Fisher married Miss Taylor and during the next three years his career lapsed. He sang little, devoting his time to being her companion. He was at her bedside when she nearly died of pneumonia in London in 1961. She began seeing British actor

Richard Burton as they co-starred in "Cleopatra."

In 1964 Liz obtained a Mexican divorce and was married to Burton.

A Fisher friend says, "One time he had a big gambling loss in Las Vegas after the break-up with Liz. I personally think he's still hung up on her. He has a fantastic-looking girl friend he met here, Ida Bjorn-Hansen, a Norwegian, who resembles Liz."

Fisher has frequently starred at a number of Las Vegas resort hotels—at a reported $35,000 a week—and remains under contract to Caesars Palace. A hotel spokesman says he'll probably be booked there next year.

Taft Asks Laird For Nerve Gas Team

XENIA, Ohio (AP)—U.S. Rep. Robert Taft Jr., Republican nominee for the U. S. Senate, said Wednesday he has asked Defense Secretary Melvin Laird to establish a blue ribbon group to review and approve disposal plans for chemical and biological weapons.

Commenting on the disposal this week of nerve gas in the Atlantic Ocean, Taft told a coffee meeting here. "Right or wrong, the episode over disposal of Army nerve gas rockets should not be forgotten."

"If it is essential that plans for disposal be outlined before such compounds are manufactured or ordered."

Austrian Visitor Likes What He Sees!

The past three weeks in return visit with Rob Frost, who Fayette County have been full of surprises for a handsome Austrian high school senior, but they have been pleasant surprises.

Rainer Zisch, who has been visiting the John E. Frost family, White Oak Rd., said he has found America and its way of life different from that of his native Austria, but that he likes it all very much.

He lives in the city of Boecklabruck, but has been on surrounding farms with his father, Hanns Zisch, a veterinarian, so often that he is familiar with rural life in Austria. Farms in the northern part of Austria, where he lives, are relatively small and devoted primarily to dairying. The buildings are all closely grouped, he said. This is in contrast to the Frost farm (and most American farms for that matter), which is much larger and devoted to both grain and livestock production.

Rainer said he is especially impressed with the vastness of the United States and the efficiency of mechanized farming and the hustle and bustle of the cities.

HE ARRIVED here during the Fayette County Fair for a

He and Rob have been seeing as much of this part of the country as possible during the short month he will be here.

They have been to Lafayette, Ind., where they joined Rob's cousin, John Halliday, a student at Purdue University, and then went on to Chicago. On the way back they stopped at Racine, Wis., to call on a pen pal of Rainer's mother.

They went to Cincinnati last Sunday to see the Reds-Phillies baseball game and to Coney Island on the Ohio River. They have been to Scioto Downs to see the harness horse races.

Rainer cashed a mutual ticket (for $2.20 profit) and saw the Demolition Derby at the Fair, which Rainer said he thought was crazy.

TO A BOY from Austria, this was all new and different and eye-opening and it was obvious from his broad smile and sparkle in his eyes that Rainer liked every minute of it and is looking forward to more sights and surprises before he leaves for home Sept. 3.

Rainer's home is on an agricultural plain surrounded by high mountains, vastly different from the broad prairie expanse of Fayette County and the Midwest he has seen.

American food is different, too, Rainer said, but he likes it.

Rainer and Rob, who have been inseparable companions and friends for the last two months, have not been missing much. Has Rainer been meeting some of the Fayette County girls? Rainer smiled broadly; Rob said he has met "his share."

ROB WENT to Austria June 29 as the Bloomingburg Lions Club's part of the Ohio Lions Clubs' foreign exchange program. His father is a member of the sponsoring club, and Rainer's father is a member of the Boecklabruck Lions Club.

During his month with the Zisch family, Rob had an opportunity to see much of Austria and, as "one of the family," got to know the Austrians and their way of life.

Rob, who was graduated from Miami Trace High School last May, plans to enter Ohio State University this fall and will major in music.

Rainer, who has a year of high school ahead, plans to study ocean science in college.

'Tax Aide' Exams Set In September

CINCINNATI — Individuals who are not certified public accountants or attorneys but want to qualify to represent clients in tax matters before the Internal Revenue Service must submit their examination application by Sept. 1, 1970.

District Director of Internal Revenue Paul A. Schuster said that the special enrollment examination in the Southern Ohio District will be given at Cincinnati Sept. 28 and 29.

Interested persons can secure applications and additional information from their local IRS office, he said.

Applications, accompanied by a fee of $25 payable to the Internal Revenue Service, should be mailed to the Director, Audit Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington D. C. 20224.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Thursday, Aug. 20, the 232nd day of 1970. There are 133 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1741, Alaska was discovered by a Danish navigator, Vitus Jonas Bering.

On this date:

In 1776, in the Revolutionary War, George Washington eluded the British in Brooklyn, New York and moved his army across the East River to Manhattan in dense fog.

In 1866, the Civil War was officially ended.

In 1914, Germans occupied the Belgian city of Brussels during World War I.

In 1941, during World War II, the Russians blew up their Dnieper Dam as German troops swept across the Ukraine.

In 1955, hundreds of persons were killed in anti-French riots in Morocco and Algeria.

In 1964, President Lyndon B. Johnson signed an anti-poverty bill as a first step toward what he called "the great society."

Ten years ago — The 19-month-old Mali Federation in West Africa ended as Senegal and the Sudan split.

Five years ago — Riots broke out in Athens, Greece, after a government headed by Elias Tsirimokos was sworn in during a continuing government crisis.

One year ago — The death toll from Hurricane Camille climbed to 283, and martial law was tightened in Mississippi's disaster areas.

School Transfer Vote Requested

HILLSBORO — The Highland County Board of Education has formally approved submission of a school territory transfer request to voters in the Bright School District at the November election.

The request asks transfer of the North Brushcreek section, an area generally comprising the old Carmel School District, to Peebles or the Ohio Valley Local of Adams County.

The board action also came after the Bright Board of Education, had recommended that the proposal be put on the ballot.

Fantasy Of Frosting

Record-Herald Thursday, Aug. 20, 1970 11
Washington C. H., Ohio

Mrs. Irene Grim, of Boomingburg, is a lady with a variety of interests. Being the mother of eight sons, she is very active in community affairs, in her family, and in helping others.

Formerly a nursing home owner, Mrs. Grim started baking cakes in the evenings when her work required her to stay on the premises. She practiced decorating cakes, made primarily for her family. Her first cake was made for her late husband's 50th birthday. She gradually became more interested in baking and was asked to bake cakes for weddings and other occasions.

During a demonstration at the Fayette County Fair Mrs. Grim showed how to make rosebuds, by using "flower tips" and "rose nails." Frosting is placed in decorating bags made of parchment paper. For the wide border, the big star tips are used, and a smaller closed star tip for borders of the smaller edges of the tiers.

The drapes, or scallops, on the tiers are made with the small star tips. To make the leaves, the leaf tips of tubes are used.

Plastic or metal couplings are put in the parchment decorating bags to make stems and the leaf tubes if she doesn't want to take time to change tips. Spacers with swan heads pieces are used between the tiers.

In making wedding cakes, Mrs. Grim usually takes one day to make all of the one-size of layers, cools them, then wraps them in foil and places them in the freezer until all the necessary layers are completed. She also will take one day to make sugar bells, flowers and horseshoes of various colors. She freezes them too, until ready to assemble the cake.

Her largest order to date is a cake which she will bake and decorate to take to Lockbourne AFB on Sept. 5.

Mrs. Irene Grim, Boomingburg, places the finishing touches on a three-tier wedding cake. The wide border is made by forcing frosting through a star-shaped metal tip inserted into the decorating bag. The frosting is applied with a continuous circular motion.

Different shaped frosting tips are used to create the varying patterns and decorations that adorn the cake. Mrs. Grim demonstrates how to make varieties of flowers and sugar bells as an interested spectator watches intently for tips.

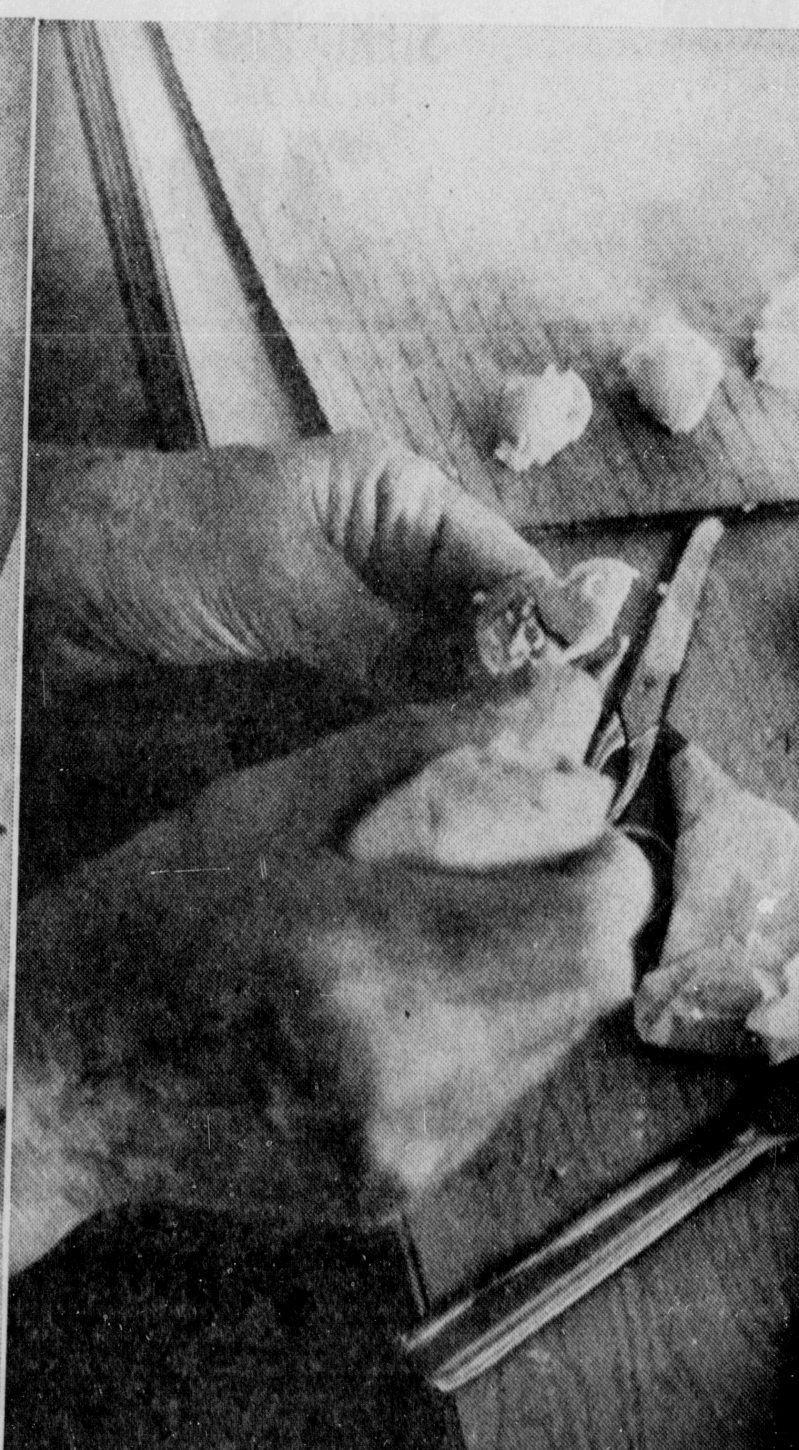

Green colored frosting is forced from the metal-tipped parchment cones to form the leaves after the roses have been mounted onto the cake.

The powdered sugar frosting is spooned into decorating bags made by folding parchment paper into cones. A decorating tip is inserted into the end of the cone prior to adding the frosting.

Rosebuds are formed by forcing the frosting through a thin-slitted flower tip onto a metal holder called a rose nail.

The frosting is forced into a little circle on the rose nail, and then small petal-shaped layers of frosting are added to it.

A cold knife is used to cut the newly formed flower from the rose nail. The rose is placed in the refrigerator until all the decorations and pieces are ready to assemble on the cake.

Giants Beat Pittsburgh; Win 7-4

By TOM SALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer

Juan Marichal had just staggered to his fourth straight victory, stalling Pittsburgh's chances of picking up ground in the torrid East Division race but still likes the Pirates chances of winning it all.

"The Pirates have a great infield and are a great hitting club but man they have to score too many runs to win," the San Francisco right-hander said Wednesday night after giving up 13 hits to the hard-hitting Pirates, but coming out with a 7-4 victory.

"If their pitching is okay, they have the best chance to win," said Marichal after increasing his record to 7-9, after being slowed earlier in the season with an ear infection.

In other National League games, Houston trounced the New York Mets 9-4, Chicago bombed San Diego 12-2, Los Angeles downed St. Louis 4-2, Atlanta edged Philadelphia 3-2 and Montreal tripped Cincinnati 8-6.

Pittsburgh left-hander Luke Walker, 10-4, had a six-game winning streak snapped, giving up a pair of runs in the opening inning on a run-scoring single to Ken Henderson and a bases-full walk.

McCovey then slammed his homer in the fifth, giving the Giants a 4-0 edge.

The Cubs drilled seven home runs including two by Jim Hickman to help Ferguson Jenkins gain his 15th victory.

Jenkins added one while Billy Williams, Johnny Callison, Joe Pepitone and Glenn Beckert had the others, matching the league's season high for a game set April 21 by Cincinnati against Atlanta.

McCovey then slammed his homer in the fifth, giving the Giants a 4-0 edge.

Hickman drove in five runs while Jenkins had 11 strikeouts to go over the 200 mark for the fourth successive season with 207. Clarence Gaston homered for the Padres.

The Cubs also re-activated Ernie Banks, who hadn't played since July 30.

"I'm glad to get him back," we figure to be in pretty good shape," Durocher said.

The Astros rocked Tom Seaver and three relievers for 14 hits in their rout of the Mets.

A pair of triples, a bases-loaded belt by Denis Menke and a two-run shot by Jesus Alou accounted for five of the Houston runs. Seaver, 17-8, left in the sixth inning, his earliest exit in 28 starts this year.

Bud Harrelson, New York's shortstop, tied a major league record with his 54th consecutive errorless game set last year by the Cubs' Don Kessinger.

Rusty Staub triggered a six-run Montreal fifth inning as the Expos dropped the Reds for the second straight game, giving Montreal the distinction of becoming the first club this season to take a series at Cincinnati.

The Expos jumped on loser Gary Nolan, 15-5, for six singles and Ron Brand capped the big fifth inning with a two-run triple. Tony Perez slugged a two-run homer for the Reds, his 38th. Bob Bailey had a solo shot for the Expos.

Willie Davis cracked a 2-2 tie with a two-run, bases-loaded single in the ninth inning for the Dodgers triumph. The Cards had homers from Joe Hagie and Lou Brock while Manny Mota had one for Los Angeles.

Atlanta came behind in the eighth inning on run-scoring hits by Sonny Jackson and Felix Millan for their narrow victory over the Phils. Deron Johnson and Rick Wise homered for the Phils' runs off winner Pat Jarvis, 14-10.

Ken Brown Tries For Cleveland Browns

GATLINBURG, Tenn. (AP) — Rookie running back Ken Brown of the Cleveland Browns never played college football, but thinks he has a good chance to make this season's Browns' team because of his experience last year with a minor league club.

Brown, a 24-year-old from Oklahoma City, is expected to get his big chance Saturday night in Memphis, Tenn., when the Browns meet the Kansas City Chiefs in an exhibition game.

Brown played on amateur and semi-pro football teams after high school, and last year joined the Jersey Jays, a Continental League club which had a working agreement with the Browns.

Shaw Signs With Buffalo; Walt Sweeney Comes Back

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Walt Sweeney might have returned to the San Diego Chargers empty-handed, but at least he has a job waiting for him. Dennis Shaw, on the other hand, comes to the Buffalo Bills with a fist full of dollars and only a seat on the bench assured.

Shaw, who had been asking a reported $375,000 to sign with the Bills, finally settled Wednesday for a reported $100,000 in salary and bonuses over three years. That assured him a place on the team, and probably on the bench.

Buffalo, desperately in need of a good and healthy quarterback in recent years, has five of them now from which to select — Jim Harris, Dan Darragh, Tom Sherman, Virgil Carter and Shaw.

Sweeney, however, lost his case for retirement and came back to the Chargers without the no-cut clause in his contract he was demanding.

"I need protection in case I would go and break my leg and couldn't play again," he had argued, then the eight-year veteran and All-Pro guard ended his two-day retirement, although he still has yet to sign his pact.

"I made a rather hasty and emotional decision," Sweeney said, expressing regret at his brief retirement. "I was acting selfishly without thinking of my family or my teammates."

However, he was fined an unknown amount by General Manager Sid Gillman, and then returned to his starting position on the offensive line.

There were several other retirements Wednesday that could stick longer than Sweeney's. Fringe players Paul Feldhausen, an offensive tackle with Boston, and George Youngblood, a defensive back with the Chicago Bears, announced they were leaving football.

A few others switched teams. New Orleans picked up guard-place kicker Justin Canale, a five-year veteran, on waivers from Buffalo, and Minnesota obtained defensive back Seth Miller on waivers from Atlanta.

Shaw, scheduled to arrive in Buffalo from San Diego today, has been working out with San Diego State the past three weeks, but was not expected to see action in Buffalo's exhibition game Friday night against Philadelphia. In fact, he might not see too much action this season.

Despite his mark of leading the nation in yardage last season with San Diego State, the 6-foot-2 Shaw, Buffalo's No. 2 draft pick, is likely to spend much of the season on the sidelines. Currently, the Bills plan to start with Harris, who was out almost all of his rookie year last season with injuries.

However, Shaw was described as "pleased" at the money he got for signing, and so were the Bills.

Reese's two-out single. As Napp waved the safe sign, catcher Jake Gibbs and Houk argued heatedly that the throw from right had beaten the Killer.

"When the catcher turned to make the tag, his glove was behind the plate," said Napp. "The runner slid across the plate and into the glove. I call them like I see them."

"I think that's ridiculous," said Houk. "An easy-going guy like Jake doesn't get that mad about every play. You could see the slide marks where he didn't make it."

And Killebrew? "I was safe ... I was in there," said Charmin' Harmon. "That opened the door for another run on Leo Cardenas' RBI single. And the Twins shut off all post-game debates when Killebrew doubled to score Danny Thompson with an insurance run in the eighth."

Dennis Higgins bailed Rich Hand out of a wobbly eighth inning and pinch-hitter Chuck Hinton delivered a run-scoring double in Cleveland's victory over California. It was Hand's fifth victory of the year, and his third straight over the Angels.

Diego Segui mystified Detroit on four hits as the A's halted a four-game slide that had dropped them from second to third in the West. Don Mincher hit a two-run homer, his 21st, for the winners.

Merv Rettenmund rifled a two-out, run-scoring single in the eighth to snap a 2-2 tie and give the Orioles their victory over the Brewers. It made an 18-game winner of Mike Cuellar and boosted Baltimore's East lead to 11 games over New York.

Th White Sox, losing by three going into the ninth, shelled Red Sox hurlers for 11 runs on 10 hits. The cluster tied an American League record held by the New York Yankees for most runs in the ninth inning.

Paul Schaaf rapped a leadoff homer in the seventh, snapping a 1-1 tie, and powered Kansas City over Washington. Dick Drago, who hadn't won a game in nearly two months, pitched a four-hitter.

Woody Hayes Sees Another Great Year

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Woody Hayes is optimistic about Ohio State's football team setting another national championship attendance total in 1970.

"This team should be as good — a little better than last year," he told a pre-season press conference Wednesday night. "Sophomores should make us stronger."

Hayes' job of winning a fourth national crown in his 20 years at Ohio State will be much more difficult than the attendance title, already a near certainty.

All five Ohio Stadium games are booked as sellouts, starting with the Sept. 26 opener with Texas A&M. That assures the Buckeyes, who have led the nation in attendance 18 of the last 19 years, of a 400,000 crowd figure for the home season.

Hayes, who owns a 125-42-7 record in his 19 seasons with the Buckeyes, admits the coaches' big problem will be lighting a fire under the 13 seniors who have lettered twice and played on the 1968 national and Rose Bowl championship team.

"You never have a great team unless the seniors are playing their best ball — every one of them," he said. He has more seniors on the squad, 28, than any of his previous Ohio State eleven.

The juniors were major contributors to the 1969 Big Ten Conference co-titlists with Michigan that finished fourth in the national rankings with an 8-1 record.

The 24-12 reversal at Michigan in the final game tumbled the Buckeyes from the No. 1 national spot. Hayes hasn't forgotten the Wolverines, although he continues to avoid their name.

"That team that decided us in the final game deserves a high rating again. I talked to their coach (Bo Schembechler) and he seems to be completely recovered," Hayes said.

Schembechler suffered a heart attack prior to the Rose Bowl game last December and is back guiding the Wolverines.

The 1970 Buckeyes have so many veterans that only three sophomores, offensive guard John Hicks and defensive tackle George Hasenohrl and Shad Williams, will crack the early starting lineup.

Lions, Panthers Kick Off Pre-Season Grid Drills

Predictable enthusiasm and a few new wrinkles were present Wednesday at Miami Trace and Washington Senior High Schools as both opened pre-season football practice with two workouts. With first-day morale at its usual high, both teams were able to report productive opening sessions.

At Miami Trace, new head coach Roy Lucas welcomed 43 hopefuls, while Washington C. H. mentor Maurice Pfeiffer introduced a new offense to 37 grid candidates.

The Washington C. H. coaching staff started pre-season work at the Washington Senior High School practice field with hopes for a South Central Ohio League championship. The 37 boys out for football represent an overall gain in size over last year while sacrificing a small amount of speed.

While the players were busy familiarizing themselves with the Washington C. H. brand of football, the coaches were busy looking over one of the most enthusiastic groups of footballers the school has seen.

The Lions held a dummy scrimmage devoted to offense, primarily to the passing game, with which Pfeiffer was exceedingly pleased.

No injuries were reported and none were expected at least until the Lions start contact work.

Pfeiffer promises a more exciting offense this year with the changeover from the I-formation he used for five years, to the wishbone-T formation. The change was made to capitalize on the Blue Lions' strong backfield.

The wishbone-T, a brainchild of Darrell Royal, head coach at the University of Texas, emphasizes the running game. It is unlike the old I, in which the tailback carried the ball over half the time. In this setup, one back is located directly behind the quarterback and the other two backs are behind, and on either side of the upback.

The coaching staff was generally impressed with the First-round pairings in the Washington C. H. Open Slowpitch softball tournament have been announced. In all, 26 teams are entered in the double elimination meet, which starts Friday night with four games. There will also be four games Saturday and eight games Sunday, all at Eymann Park.

The tournament will continue throughout next week with the championship to be decided Aug. 30.

City manager Clarence Christman is expected to be on hand to throw out the first ball for the tournament Friday night.

Friday's games will start with a contest matching Bell Dor-Lite and New Vienna's Knaff Marathon. Other Friday contests: Bluefield Pushers vs. Bob and Wally, London; Tolle Auto Sales vs. Rocky Fork Truck Stop; and New Martinsburg vs. National Glove, Mt. Sterling.

Saturday games, starting at 6:30 p.m.: Estep Welding vs. Hillsboro U.A.W.; Mystery Lodge, Springfield vs. Lynchburg; Uhl's I.G.A. Greenfield vs. NCR; and Johnson Painting, Springfield vs. Fiebel, Hillsboro.

Sunday action starts at 1 p.m. with three second-round contests to follow five first-round games. The first-round action: Pennington vs. Huddle Greenfield; Young Farmers vs. Xenia Flea Market; Morris Beam vs. Johnson Construction; Mac Tool, Sabina vs. PPG; Cedarville Supermarket vs. Dick Welch, Circleville.

Other team scores included: Mrs. William Junk, Mrs. Gene Heath, Mrs. Dale Wade and Mrs. Harry Townsend, 35; Mrs. Robert Herron, Mrs. George Arnold, Mrs. Harry Thraikill and Mrs. John Arbogast, 36; Mrs. W. K. hustle, enthusiasm and eagerness to learn that the players showed. "Crew Glue" has been chosen as the team motto this year, and if the Lions "stick together," it looks like another exciting season for Washington C. H. fans.

FUNDAMENTALS occupied the major portion of both workouts at Miami Trace, and such will be the case in most of the early practice sessions. Coach Lucas had 12 returning lettermen on the junior-laden squad. There are 21 juniors on the team.

Lucas said that he had expected about 60 candidates to report for the opening of practice, based on earlier signups and weigh-ins.

The passing game is expected to come in for a lot of work in the pre-season drills. "We've got a couple of good passers," said Lucas, adding that the Panthers were also blessed with "some good young receivers."

Size and speed are nothing the Panthers can brag about this year, with Jay Waddle the only player reporting at over 200 pounds.

"The offensive line will probably be the key to our season," commented Lucas. "They're not big, but if some people (on the offensive line) stay healthy and develop the way they can, they can do all right."

At the present time, six Panther players are sidelined with pulled muscles that they incurred during the conditioning period. None of the ailments are serious, and they shouldn't present too much of a problem.

AT CIRCLEVILLE, 56 players turned out for the opening of practice sessions, while 62 showed at Wilmington. Greenfield gets underway Friday.

Tourneys Win Golf Playoff

Led by Hubert Rumer's 38, the Tourneys wrapped up the Wednesday Night Men's Golf League championship at Washington Country Club. The Tourneys clobbered the Maxflis 14-6 in the playoff match.

The Tourneys qualified for the final match by winning the first round of the schedule with 68 points. The Maxflis won both the second and third rounds, with 58 and 56½ points.

Rumer, playing in the No. 1 position for the Tourneys, needed only 13 putts to complete his excellent round. He won all four of his match points. John Wylie and Walter Salvage added 3½ points apiece.

Final league statistics showed that Max Beasley had the best strokes-per-round average, 40. Walter Salvage was named the toughest competitor in the league with a superb 3.46 points per match average. Salvage played in the fifth position for the league champions.

The Tourneys had the highest point total for the three-round season, 179½, while the Maxflis carded 164. Then came the Royals, 148; Staffs, 139; Titleists, 136½; and Dots, 132½.

CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH

TOURNEYS 14, Maxflis 6

TOURNEYS — Hubert Rumer 38-4; John Wylie 44-3½; Everett Rudolph 47-1½; Homer Ralston 50-1½; Walter Salvage 45-3½.

MAXFLIS — Dr. John Jordan 42-0; Bernie Light 50-½; William O'Laughlin 46-2½; Ralph Hyer 43-2½; Ed Hurlow 51-½.

Dave Lewis Starts For Cincy Bengals

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — The Cincinnati Bengals announced Wednesday night that rookie quarterback Dave Lewis will start against the St. Louis Cardinals there Saturday night in the teams' third National Football League exhibition game.

The former Stanford player earlier won the punting assignment and Dale Livingston was placed on waivers.

RENNELAER, Ind. (AP) — The Chicago Bears have overcome the numbness of their worst season in history and show signs of making a spirited comeback in 1970.

Despite Gale Sayers leading the National Football League with 1,032 rushing yards and the devastation by linebacker Dick Butkus, the Bears went down the drain with a 1-13 record in 1969.

To regain self respect, an overhauling job was mandatory. The old Tiger, George Halas, began growling and the Bears' facelifting began.

Trades involving the Bears' first two draft choices and several players corralled eight established players, five of whom are likely starters.

Linebacker Lee Roy Caffey, center Bob Hyland and running back Elijah Pitts came from the Green Bay Packers; running back Craig Baynham and strong safety Phil Clark from the Dallas Cowboys; defensive tackle Bill Staley and defensive end Harry Gunner from the Cincinnati Bengals and tight end Jim Hester from the New Orleans Saints.

Also going into the blender are such rookies as wide receiver Linzy Cole of Texas Christian, flanker George Farmer of UCLA, and offensive linemen Jeff Curchin of Florida State and Glen Holloway of North Texas State.

"The most encouraging thing is the newfound spirit, not only on the part of the players but also the coaching staff," says 75-year-old Halas, who turned over the head coaching reins to Jim Dooley two years ago.

The new team captains are Sayers, Butkus, offensive guard Jim Cadile and cornerback Bennie McRae.

"They want to be leaders and they are confident we can turn things around this season," says Dooley. "They appreciate the added bench strength we have and the competition it has created."

Voting Procedure Made Easy For Ohioans In Armed Forces

COLUMBUS — Before each election, election officials, in cooperation with the Department of Defense, extend their encouragement to members of the armed services to take advantage of Ohio's armed services absent voter's voting law.

Recognizing that it is often difficult for the servicemen, stationed in faraway places, to comply with the requirements of the ordinary absent voting law, Ohio has provided for servicemen and their wives an abbreviated and simple procedure for obtaining ballots and voting.

The first step in the procedure is for the service member or his wife to send to the board of elections of his home county a request for armed service ballots. No particular form of application is necessary.

A serviceman, or his wife who is an Ohio voter who has left Ohio to be with him, need send only a letter or card to the board of elections, stating that they wish to vote armed service ballots.

They should include as much information as possible about their Ohio voting residence — that is, the place where they lived in Ohio before they left to go to their service camp or base. This request for ballots may be mailed now. It could have been mailed earlier.

UPON RECEIPT of this request, the board will check it to see if the applicant actually has an Ohio voting residence. A service member need not be registered. If he has an Ohio voting residence, the board of elections will mail him ballots. When he receives them, he marks them, seals them in an envelope, swears to the affidavit on the envelope before any officer of the rank of sergeant or higher, and mails them back.

The service member has an Ohio voting residence if he lived in Ohio at the time he entered the service. That voting residence is at the place where he then lived, even though his family has moved elsewhere since he has been in the service. His wife has an Ohio voting residence if she has lived in Ohio for one year.

If she lived in Ohio less than one year before leaving the state to go with her husband, she can count the time she has spent with him as part of her year. She must, however, have lived in Ohio some time; she does not acquire an Ohio voting residence simply by marrying an Ohioan.

Every large installation has a voting service officer to help the service member make an application, or to meet any problems.

New Historical Society Building Set To Open

By ALFRED C. HALL

Associated Press Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) —

From a distance the $10 million structure looks like a huge block of stone on a pedestal.

Another description compares it to a giant sandwich.

Actually, it is the new, imposing home of the Ohio Historical Society, depository of the state's treasures — from bones of prehistoric animals — to manuscripts.

It will be dedicated by Gov. James A. Rhodes Sunday and opened to the public the following day.

Thereafter, the museum, to be known as the Ohio Historical Center, on the Ohio State Fairgrounds, will be open daily to the millions it is expected to attract.

It is an opportune time for the opening. The Ohio State Fair opens Aug. 27, and the building is expected to be one of the fair's top attractions.

Visiting hours will be 9 a.m.

to 5 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Friday and Saturday; 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Wednesday, and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Sundays and holidays. The library will be closed Sundays. Admission is free.

The building was conceived in 1964 when Rhodes unveiled his $290 million capital improvements bond issue proposal.

It included $10 million for the new center. Voters approved the bond issue and ground was broken Aug. 22, 1966. It has been under construction ever since.

Society Director Daniel R. Porter compared the building, designed by Columbus architect W. Byron Ireland and Associates, to a sandwich.

Two buildings in one, the bottom slice is a delta-shaped, ground level structure housing all central museum functions of the society in more than three acres of space.

The top slice is a three-story, cantilevered block housing the state archives and the library.

The "sandwich" filling is the public reception area or plaza, glass enclosed, housing a display of Ohio battleflags — the third largest collection in the nation — and sales, food service, and information facilities.

Like a gourmet sandwich, Porter says, the contents spill out onto the open plaza deck, landscaped and provided with promenades.

As designed, the building is supported by four hollow, utility filled columns built on bedrock, piercing the ground level, and supporting the cantilevered library-archives block above.

Museum officials say skeptics prophesied the collapse of the block, but it stands sound.

The formal building is the first of two phases in the development of the 58-acre site.

A pre-Civil War village complex is being planned on a 12-acre area north of the building.

Here, historical activities in and around village components will be staged throughout the year. Village construction is to begin next spring. A 1,200-car parking lot serves both the center and the village.

Society officials say museum experts have called the center one of the six most outstanding historical museum complexes on the continent.

Because of construction delays and slow materials delivery, many of the exhibits will not be completed by dedication day, Porter said, noting the work required to move and arrange the exhibits formerly held in the old museum on the Ohio State University campus.

Hundreds of the objects never before exhibited from the Society's collections will be shown for the first time, Porter said. "We are emphasizing quality, educational exhibits, rather than haste and waste," he said.

The Stars Say—By ESTRELLITA

For Tomorrow

FRIDAY could prove to be a big day in your life. You might, quite unexpectedly, find the solution to a long-pending problem, and you will find it a highly auspicious day for launching new enterprises, especially those of long-range value. Capitalize on your best ideas now.

For The Birthday

If tomorrow is your birthday, the year ahead should bring great happiness in your personal life. Domestic, social and sentimental interests should prove highly stimulating, with emphasis on romance during September, November, January, May, late June and late July; on travel and social activities between now and late November, in late December, next June and July. In the latter connection, you will find many opportunities for making some valuable new contacts.

Where job matters are concerned, excellent headway can be made through a comprehensive and well-planned program—if you launch it soon and follow through consistently. Advancement, with corresponding monetary reward, can be expedited by extending your sphere of activity and showing a willingness to assume additional responsibilities—especially between early December and late March. Next good periods along material lines: Late June and July of next year. Do avoid extravagance and/or speculation during the forthcoming October and November, however. Caution during the November period will be especially important.

A child born on this day will be extremely ambitious and independent, but may have to curb tendencies toward extreme irritability when opposed.

Hospital Group Adds 4 Members

When members of the Memorial Hospital Auxiliary met in the hospital with Mrs. Martha Reiff, president, in charge, they welcomed four new members and announced a new project — saving register tapes from the Belle Aire Foodliner.

Reports were made of the various activities and a profit of $226.67 was announced from the sandwich and bake sale during Old Fashioned Bargain Days.

The work schedule of members was reviewed and announcement was made there are now 38 members of the junior unit, under the direction of Becky Wipert, county, and Tove Woodmansee, city.

Donations to the Auxiliary were acknowledged and thank-you notes sent. The proposed hospital gift shop was discussed. The next meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m. Sept. 14 at the hospital.

The trotting mare Fresh Yankee now 7-year-old, was purchased as a yearling for $900 by Canadian Duncan MacDonald and has won in excess of $580,000.

Find Edge To Universe

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two Ohio State University scientists think they discovered that the universe has an edge.

Radio astronomers Dr. John D. Kraus and Dr. Beverly June Harris have probed more than 8,000 sources of radio signals from all over the universe. They have found that after about 10 billion light years from earth, the number of sources drops markedly.

The astronomers used a radio receiving antenna the size of three football fields located near Delaware, Ohio, to make their discovery.

If space travellers centuries from now are in danger of leaving the universe, Dr. Kraus isn't ready to predict what will happen to them or what they'll find.

He says more powerful equipment could disclose more radio sources beyond the "edge."

Viet Reds Overrun Village; Air Strikes Aid Cambodians

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Heavily armed Viet Cong and North Vietnamese forces overran the Cambodian defenders of a village nine miles from Phnom Penh today and pushed to within six miles of the capital.

Air strikes continued as an estimated three enemy battalions pushed southward from the village of Prek Tameak, which is northeast of the capital and on the other side of the Mekong River.

One reinforced Cambodian battalion was reported holding out on the Prek Tameak side of the river. A spokesman in Phnom Penh said fighting was continuing at Prek Tameak with heavy casualties on both sides. But newsmen who drove to a point across the river from the village found everything quiet.

Troops in the area said a large number of Cambodian soldiers left Prek Tameak by boat Wednesday night, taking their wounded with them. Cambodian and South Vietnamese gunboats were positioned on the river to provide covering fire during the night.

At least two villagers were wounded during the night by what they said was unprovoked fire from the gunboats, but a Cambodian captain on the river said the villagers were hit by Viet Cong fire from across the river, which at that point is nearly a mile wide.

Prek Tameak, a village of thatched houses and a few Chinese shops, has been attacked three times. Once the Viet Cong held it for three days. The Cambodian command has long feared enemy attempts to secure positions in the wooded lands just across the river from Phnom Penh. From there they could harass the capital with rocket and mortar fire.

In Saigon, the U.S. Command would neither confirm nor deny that American bombers were supporting the Cambodians. An American spokesman said "interdiction" raids are flown in Cambodia every day, but "we don't discuss specific locations or targets."

In the northern part of South Vietnam, some Americans were killed and some wounded in a mortar attack on a night camp of troops of the 101st Airborne Division one mile north of Fire Base Barnett and 16 miles southwest of the provincial capital of Quang Tri. The U.S. Command said American casualties were light.

South Vietnamese troops clashed with enemy forces farther north, near Fire Base Fuller, and reported killing eight of the enemy. One government soldier was reported wounded.

U.S. Strategic Air Command B52 bombers began their eighth week of heavy raids in border areas of Laos and South Vietnam. About 40 of the big Stratofortresses dropped 1,200 tons of bombs on both sides of the border.

Reconnaissance planes early today placed Dorothy near latitude 14.1 north, longitude 59.6 west, or about 130 miles east of Lucia.

Pilots said the storm was moving northwest at about 17 m.p.h.

"Gale force winds extended outward 100 miles in the northeast semicircle and 30 miles in the southwest semicircle," the Weather Bureau said.

Little change in direction or intensity was forecast.

Census Goofed; Lakeline Mayor Wants Recount

LAKELINE, Ohio (AP) — Like most of the nation's major cities, the Lake County community of Lakeline has demanded a census recount.

"Somebody goofed," Mayor Lawrence Ash said when the unofficial census showed Lakeline's population fell from 269 in 1960 to 109 people in 1970.

"We have 85 or 87 houses," Ash said. "A lot of people must be living alone." He estimated the population to be 250.

Ash said he thought that census takers forgot to count the homes on two of the community's three streets, thinking they were part of the city of Eastlake.

Similar service is in operation in Mansfield where a bus has shuttled between suburbs and downtown since January. Kent State University is planning a research test for the service this fall between the city and the university.

Habig said the existing transit service is focused on the downtown rather than the needs of the people in the Model Cities area.

"There are many problems, but we think this sort of thing is very important to the people of that area," he said. "Their social and economic opportunities are severely hampered because they cannot get around freely."

Nixon Stand On Germ War Treaty Rapped

WASHINGTON (AP) — A senator who hopes to outlaw the use of defoliants in Vietnam says President Nixon may be using a 45-year-old treaty barring gas and germ warfare to scuttle his proposal.

Administration officials said Wednesday that use of defoliants, tear gas and napalm would be permitted under the 1925 Geneva Protocol.

President Nixon sent the treaty to Senate for ratification on Wednesday. Most observers expect it to be approved.

Sen. Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis., said his amendment to ban the use of herbicides may be the reason the President acted this week—nine months after he announced he would seek Senate ratification of the treaty.

"I think their point is to get an administration position in opposition to the amendment," the Wisconsin Democrat said. "They want to exert the pressure of having their position clearly delineated."

Although he favors the treaty, Nelson took sharp exception to the administration view stated by Secretary of State William P. Rogers, in a letter accompanying Nixon's message, that tear gas and defoliants could still be used in Vietnam.

"It is the United States understanding of the Protocol that it does not prohibit the use in war of riot-control agents and chemical herbicides," Rogers said. "Smoke, flame and napalm are also not covered by the Protocol."

Officials said the administration takes the position that last year's General Assembly 80-3 vote declaring tear gas and herbicides are covered by the Protocol is without standing in international law.

"The standing is that everyone in the world wants it that way," Nelson said. "If that is their interpretation, I disagree with it."

Portugal, Australia and the United States opposed the General Assembly action.

Plane Sought In Toledo Area

WARNER ROBINS AFB, Ga. (AP) — The Ohio wing of the Civil Air Patrol has been asked to search for a small private plane piloted by a Toledo, Ohio man, the Eastern Aerospace Rescue and Recovery Center here report.

A center spokesman said the search was for Carl B. Schmidt, 45, missing since Tuesday. He said Schmidt took off from Toledo express Airport at 4:15 p.m. Tuesday after telling friends he would be taking aerial photographs for about three hours.

Schmidt, believed to be by himself, filed no flight plan, but had said he planned to land at nearby Wagon Wheel Airport in Lambertville, Mich., after taking the photographs.

U.S. Concentration Camp Law Defended By Solon

MIAMI (AP) — A law which authorizes creation of federal concentration camps under crisis conditions was praised today by the chairman of a committee considering its repeal.

Rep. Richard H. Ichord, D-Mo., said the statute might have prevented—rather than allowed—the detention of 112,000 Japanese-Americans during World War II, an episode viewed by many historians as unwarranted.

Ichord's Committee on Internal Security began hearings five months ago on a Senate-passed repealer for the law, the Emergency Detention Act, which provides for rounding up subversives in time of war or insurrection.

"Frankly, I would prefer to see the Congress consider perfecting amendments which would put to rest the fears of those most sincerely critical—namely the Japanese-Americans," Ichord said.

His remarks were prepared for the Veterans of Foreign Wars 71st national convention. "But I am something less than anxious," he continued, "to grant some of its other critics—such as the Communist Party—the satisfaction of having stripped our country of any appropriate and constitutional means of protecting itself."

Repeal of the law passed the Senate last Dec. 22 with little debate and has been urged in the House by Japanese-American groups, and witnesses citing rumors the law might be used against black militants and rioters.

The Justice Department has said it would support repeal to quell such rumors.

But Ichord argued repeal would also remove the law's safeguards including due process appeal procedures for accused subversives and leave the

Fayette County Gets Share Of Intangible Tax

The local governments of Ohio shared in the payment of a record $56.8 million in intangible tax collections, State Auditor Roger Cloud reported today.

The disbursement of $56,838,237.17 was an increase of $1,980,651 over the previous high, recorded last year. The current payment included $54,808,991.99 derived from the two-mill tax on deposits in financial institutions and $2,029,245.18 from the five-mill tax on productive investments and capital employed by dealers in intangibles.

Fayette County received $93,009.22 from both taxes.

Neighboring counties received the following amounts: Clinton $129,442; Greene $316,846; Highland $137,602; Madison $101,277; Pickaway $108,767 and Ross $208,883.

The intangible taxes, together with the $3 million distributed monthly out of sales tax collections, constitute the local government fund.

Disbursements ranged from $18,549.23 for Monroe County of $13,760,850.23 for Cuyahoga County.

$700 Mower Stolen

A $700 riding mower was stolen from the rear of the Jeffersonville Farm Service Inc. building, Rt. 4, Tuesday night, according to a report filed with the Fayette County Sheriff's Department. Nelson Baker, manager, filed the complaint Thursday.

When the New York harness racing season reached the halfway mark, Carmine Abatiello led the nation's drivers with 170 victories. He was 10 ahead of Canadian Hervé Filion.

Hi-Co School Openings Set

HILLSBORO — School bells will soon be ringing for students in the area. A varied schedule is on tap.

Hillsboro schools will open Aug. 31. The teaching staff will meet Aug. 28. County schools will start about a week earlier, Tuesday, Aug. 25, with teacher's meetings Aug. 24.

Greenfield schools won't open until Sept. 9 following Labor Day. Hillsboro schools will dismiss for the County Fair on Sept. 11 but county schools will be out for the Fair Sept. 10 and 11. Greenfield classes will remain in session.
